CHÂTEAU CHAUMES DAUBET

— BORDEAUX ROUGE

Bordeaux is the vineyard of the largest appellation wines in France. Located in the South West along the Atlantic, it is crossed by the Garonne and the Dordogne and has an oceanic climate and temperate. The richness, quality and diversity of these wines are based on the typicality of terroirs, the experience of men and the art of assembly. The tide, rising from the two rivers, brings to the wine very specific characteristics. Benefiting from this vast territory, red Bordeaux wines offer a palette of infinite nuances and combine their virtues in a thousand and one ways.

Blends

Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon

Vinification and aging

Traditional vinification in stainless steel vats

Agreements

Better served at 16° Food pairing: Red grilled or roasted meat. Cheese

Tasting

The wine has a deep red colour. The nose reveals a mixture of red fruits aromas and spicy notes. The palate offers long and intense tannic structure.
